

THE BRITISH OFFICERS' CLUB OF PHILADELPHIA

CURRY PARTY – 2018

Saturday, 17 February, 2018 - Cocktails (Open Bar): 6.30 p.m. Dinner: 7.30 p.m.

The British Officers' Club of Philadelphia, its Executive Committee, its Honorary Vice- Presidents, its Vicar-General and Chaplains – request the honor of the attendance of you, your family and friends at the BOC-sponsored Curry Party Dinner to be held at the historic:

ORMISTON MANSION IN FAIRMOUNT PARK, PHILADELPHIA
Built by Edward Burd in 1798

The first major event of the 2018 season will be our annual Curry Party Dinner – always a popular event! It is being held this year at the famous historic Ormiston Mansion (home of the Royal Heritage Society of Philadelphia) in Fairmount Park, Philadelphia. Bring guests and friends, and join us for an evening of good fellowship in the British Indian tradition!

The dinner will be catered by an outside service. All the Food at the Dinner Buffet will be served. There will be plenty of food, and everyone will be satisfied. There will be no shortages. The Maximum number of guests is 60, so once we get to 60 reservations, there can be no further RSVPs accepted. Unfortunately, if 60 RSVPs have been received, there can be no last-minute admittance because of fire regulations. RSVPs will be checked at the door. Plenty of free parking.

SPECIAL FEATURE THIS YEAR – in the downstairs main hall, historical videos of the British Raj in India will be presented, along with current videos of India as a member of the Commonwealth. We think you will enjoy these videos and also learn about the centuries-old British-India relationship.

Venue and Easy Directions: Ormiston Manor – Go on East River Drive, turn into Fountain Green Drive (at the huge President Ulysses Grant Statue) – this later becomes Reservoir Rd; follow it to 'Ormiston' – the 1st mansion on your left (its official address is: 2000 Reservoir Road, Philadelphia, PA 19121) – Tel.
